AMENDMENT FOUR TO INBOUND MARKET DOMINANT MULTI-SERVICE
AGREEMENT WITH FOREIGN POSTAL OPERATORS 1
NEGOTIATED SERVICE AGREEMENT (WITH CHINA POST GROUP)
(January 13, 2014)

The agreement that is the subject of this docket was originally scheduled to expire on December 31, 2013.¹ The Postal Regulatory Commission (Commission) granted a motion from the United States Postal Service (Postal Service) extending the agreement to February 28, 2014.²

Attached to this pleading is an amendment to that agreement, which China Post Group and the United States Postal Service (Postal Service) have executed. The amendment states that the agreement that is the subject of this docket will expire on April 30, 2014.

¹ Order No. 1598, Order Approving an Additional Inbound Market Dominant Multi-Service Agreement with Foreign Postal Operators 1 Negotiated Service Agreement (with China Post Group), Docket No. R2013-2, December 28, 2012, at 3.

² Order No. 1908, Order Approving Amendment to Existing Agreement, Docket No. R2013-2, December 17, 2013.

The Postal Service intended to file by January 14, 2014, a successor contract to the agreement that is the subject of this docket, providing ample time for the Commission to complete its 45-day review of the inbound market-dominant portion of this agreement. However, it is very likely that negotiations concerning the successor contract will continue beyond January 14, 2014.

Therefore, the Postal Service respectfully requests that the Commission continue to list the agreement that is the subject of this docket on the Mail Classification Schedule, according to the terms set forth in the amendment filed today.

Respectfully submitted,

UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE
